

Walkability: How comfortable an area is for walking

Principles for Convenient Communities

Well
Connected

Building
Orientation
And
Massing

Proper
Street Type
And
Speed

People
First
Designs

Good Links
And Transit

Key Features:

- Block Form
- Block Scale
- Pattern
- Block Circumference

- Diagonal Corners
- People First Priority
- Right Height
- Right Setback

- Scaled to human eye
- Proper speed for street life
- Vertical green features

- Parking on street and to rear
- Buffer to street
- Low speed and low noise

- Walking
- Bicycling
- Transit
- Well located transit station

Walkable Communities

Street, Block and Building Forms that Complete the Street

Commercial Sidewalk

Walkable Communities

Street, Block and Building Forms that Complete the Street

Planter Strips

Walkable Communities

Street, Block and Building Forms that Complete the Street

Connectivity

Walkable Communities

Street, Block and Building Forms that Complete the Street

Street Qualities

Walkable Communities

Street, Block and Building Forms that Complete the Street

Parks and Public Plazas

Walkable Communities

Street, Block and Building Forms that Complete the Street

Driveways

Walkable Communities

Street, Block and Building Forms that Complete the Street

Buildings and Surveillance

← Four Feet →